

THE GREATEST MIRACLE

O, how gentle, how kind! What unselfish love!
Ascribed to Him sent from Father above
How wondrous the marvels of the Master's hands
Glory to Him who's service all eternity spans

He took the blind sitting in hopeless plight
And restored vision for a future colorful, bright
He commanded the lame "take up the bed and walk"
Standing with strength they joined the faithful flock

He walked among the throng blessing his fellow men
A woman with a blood issue touched his garment hem
The virtue of the Lord went forth to her
Healed by the Savior, one can be sure

Jesus called Lazarus forth from the grave
All those present saw death was His slave
And though on Golgotha's hill He was crucified
Three days later He resurrected with body glorified

But the greatest miracle known by all mankind
Comes from the Savior in whom we find,
The door made open for forgiveness of sin
To return to heaven and be numbered His kin

He suffered for the sins of all human kind
Pain so immense, surpassing our finite mind
All this to allow each child of God to repent
Hence, the greatest miracle by the one whom Father sent
